WELCOME

Gus lives at Mt Pleasant and worked in the RAAF for 21 years, then followed by 21 years as a member of the UN Peacekeeping . He says: "My UN Peacekeeping Service was in Logistics, primarily Fuel and Food. I was the Fuel and Food Quality Assurance Manager. In my last Mission in South Sudan, UNMISS< we consumed 6 million litres of fuel per month, and about 200 tonnes of Rations for 22,000 soldiers, who were from 23 countries. The Mission had 28 Australian Defence Force Personnel. I have lived in 18 African Countries."

He is enjoying being back in Australia, he has 2 adult daughters, and 2 grandsons. His interests are cars, scuba diving, and sailing. He enjoys Arabic and Malaysian foods. His interest in sport are Rugby Union the "Brumbies" and swimming . Welcome Gus, enjoy singing.
