Chor Farmer Program.... Attached to last weeks Newsletter I gave the Program that the Chor Farmer committee have prepared, and sent to Katsutoshi who has responded to us with a few alterations that have been included in the copy that you have.

Monday Oct 7th Chor Farmer arrive at Lobethal approx. 8:30pm where we will all meet in the basement of the Lobethal Lutheran church with the Hosts and all club members are invited to be there to welcome them. A light tea has been arranged through the Lobethal Lutheran ladies. After tea the Chor Farmer choir members go home with Hosts.

Tuesday Oct 8th 10am meet at the basement of the Lobethal Lutheran church and help in setting up a Bird Bath in the Friendship Garden, meet the School Captains and staff, and share reflections of the Friendship Garden. Students are on holidays therefore the involvement with the school is less than previously, however Katsutoshi said the Chor Farmer choir men wanted to still continue relationships with the school. After the visit to the Friendship Garden we will have Morning Tea in the basement of the Church, and there will be a time where the school captains will exchange gifts to Chor Farmer, and likewise from Chor Farmer. Then Home with Hosts for lunch, return for practice for the Concert at 3:30pm. Sound check, Lobethal Harmony club to join with the practice at approx. 4:30pm. Come dressed for the Concert. Tea will be held in the basement beginning at 5:30pm for all Chor Farmer, Hosts and all club members (finger food tea). Supper after the Concert in the basement and then home with Hosts. Tickets are $40 a single, $35 concession, $20 Student, U12 Free. Tickets will be available on line through Try booking.

Wed Oct 9th Travel to Murray Bridge to board Captain Proud 10 :30am lunch on Board for Chor Farmer, Hosts, and Club members. Home with hosts and meet at the Bierhaus for tea 6:30pm to 7:00pm. All pay $40 ea.
