From Katsutoshi re the card and comments….I received an email from Katsutoshi on 14th April after receiving copies of the card and comments you gave for Kiyoshi's wife Noriko and daughter Satoko. I sent a copy to him so that Chor Farmer would know what we had sent. This is his comments…… Dear John San, I'm sorry I couldn't reply right away. I hope you and your choir's members are all well. We are truly grateful for your choir's deep connection to the late Kiyoshi Tajima and warm and kind messages you have sent to Noriko and Satoko. Noriko and Satoko understand your thoughtfulness and kindness, and of course they can communicate with you in English. We will explain to them how much he respected John san and how much he was looking forward to interacting with the Lobethal Harmony Club. I am sure he had lots To say about all you wonderful friends. Once again, I pray for his soul to rest in peace.

Advertise the Concert on May 4th.... This week we have arranged for an advert to appear in The Mount Barker Courier, but we need your help to encourage people to come.

Don't forget....We need to bring a plate of afternoon tea for the Fleurieu singers and ourselves. This will be available in the basement.

We need help at the door, and setting up for afternoon tea.....I will arrange for a float to be available at the door, and for our I Pad to be set for payments via card. If some members' wives or partners could help us that would be appreciated. We will need several people to have Coffee and Tea ready for afternoon tea in the basement, if you could assist this would be appreciated. Luke Zanker...passes his regards on to everyone in the club.
