ANZAC DAY

A tribute to the people who served our Country.

The setting was enhanced by images being projected on the front of the church. Our lights were needed.

The 12th Division of the cadet group who formed the Catafalque, during the service. A crowd of over 400 people came and enjoyed the day.

Some of the 12 men who made up the choir.

Alex in his first role as Conductor for the Lobethal Harmony club. It was interesting that I had the opportunity to speak to Barry Klose after the service and he noticed the change we have made, wishing us all the best.

NEW MEMBERS…..

We need to make an effort to contact people, talk to them invite them to a practice, which current members have done in the past. We cannot allow our numbers to "slip away" a real earnest phone up, talking to possible members needs to be done. If you know of anyone please make an effort to encourage them to join us. Several sections of the choir are feeling the "pinch" as we are struggling to reach our performance level. If you have any suggestions please give the names to John M (Pres) who will arrange for the contacts to be made. Posters are available.
