Next Concert

Will be at Maitland this Sunday, I have contacted Lyn Dutschke the organiser and they are hoping to have a good crowd.

Concert Planning committee…..

The committee met last week and they will be looking at having between 8 to 10 concerts for 2019. They have decided to NOT have any mid week entertainment for Aged Care, but to suggest to any requests that they can approach Simply Women, or the Ukes or Paul and Dorothy.
Several Concert possibilities are being explored before the next meeting on 28th August namely at Laura, Crystal Brook, South Kilkerran, Murray Bridge Lutheran Church Holy Cross, Strathalbyn Uniting Church, Marion Uniting Church. We as a committee decided not to travel to Cowell or Port Lincoln next year. We are happy to listen to your suggestions. Thank you.

Take Note….

I have also sent an email the Katsutoshi seeking their opinion of which Japanese Lantern they would prefer,. This will involve them as well. Thanks

We Welcome a New member....
Don Williams a First Tenor.

My wife Christine and I live in Oakbank, having recently moved from Darby Road Hahndorf. I have been retired for a year, after 40 –plus year as a career as a secondary teacher, specializing in Tech Studies. My first appointment was Para Hills High, where John Herbig's brother Keith was my coordinator for several years.

I only discovered this connection when Keith attended the concert at Fullarton. As a child growing up in Woodville, I have memories of involvement in two choirs. The first was an annual performance for our Sunday School anniversary, in which a temporary stage was erected in the church and we sang a selection of hymns. The second was in Grade 7 as a part of a combined choir at Adelaide Town Hall. I still have a scratchy 12 inch recording of the 1965 Festival of Music. Thankfully the 400 voices drowned me out. There was always music in our home, with my sisters buying all the records and my brother cutting his teeth on Neil Diamond. He now sings with the Tea Tree Gully Redbacks and has appeared in a number of musicals. As a teacher, I took part in a number of school plays, choirs and staff bands, particularly at the end-of-year assemblies. At Gepps Cross Girls High, I was the only one with a beard. My daughter Sally lives in the wheat belt in WA and is a mad keen polocrosse player. Her moving away (and taking her horses) was a factor in our decision to downsize and move to Oakbank. My musical tastes are many and varied, but I love the sound of good harmony, so I am flexible in what I sing. The decision to join the Lobethal Harmony Club was a result of the Bunnings sausage sizzle, where I was encouraged (coerced?) by Fred and Alan.. We wish you all the best Don as a member.
