Vol 3 No 23

Thanks to the Mount Barker Rotary Club for your support is appreciated. Helen Martin representing Rotary is presenting the certificate to the winner of the Clara Serena Memorial Vocal Scholarship Shanna Goh,. Graham did an excellent job in managing the MC for the night. ThankYou

She is a student at Marryatville High , where she has performed in 3 musicals at the school. She plays the piano, the Cello, and the clarinet. Her involvement with music began when she played the piano when 3 years old.

Gerry and Raylene were the adjudicators for the Vocal Scholarships and they had a real task, due to several talented young people. Thank You

Chor Farmer...for you to know what is planned.

We have purchased the Japanese Lantern from Heyne's Nursery on the The Parade Norwood, at a reduced cost of $146.

We are visiting the school on Wednesday morning to discuss with Cathy the Principal where the Japanese Lantern is to be placed, and where the plants can be placed.

There are 2 working Busy Bee's arranged this Saturday August 25th at 10am to do some of the preparation for the Friendship garden. Then on Saturday Sept 1st to prepare for the placement of the Japanese Lantern. If you can help, please see J Wittwer or Graham Simmons. WE WILL NEED HELP as several of the committee cannot be there on the Sept 1st.

Katsutoshi has been in touch with Peter Dickason, and he has received a Poster that we can use to advertise the Concert, please take copies and flyers to advertise the Concert. I need to follow up with the Mt Barker Courier, The Leader, and the Murray-Bridge Standard to try to receive some coverage. We will be contacting Radio 5MU, and the Hills Radio later.*

Graham , Ros Simmons Paul and Dorothy, travelled to Goolwa to do the "dry run" from Goolwa to Victor Harbor on the steam train. Stephnie and myself caught up with them for lunch. It appears it will be a good day to enjoy .Please encourage people to come to travel on the Steam Train on the 12th September. I have had several friends of ours who have booked in, and Fred is the first ticket holder.

Tickets for the Concert and the Steam ranger trip are available, please see J Wittwer . We will discuss at the Exec meeting tonight if some other members can assist. with the selling of tickets..

Tonight before practice the Hosts will be having a meeting to discuss what is planned for the visit, and the costs that we are sharing This will give an opportunity to say THANK YOU to the Hosts, and to discuss any issues that they may have.*

THANK YOU for the Help for the Movie Night we raised $1,606.50 Profit. Still some funds to come.
