I received this email from Jeff...*Hello John,we met Atsushi last night and today and chose to see the emperors palace now gardens and 40 foot ramparts then the National art gallery.After lunch we went to Chor farmer practice room on 3rd floor and met with Katsutoshi and the other choir members. They feted us with a sprig of golden wattle and a posey for Ady . The president made a speech and asked me to reply which I did.I shook hands with those I recognized.One choir leader came and chatted with Ady.We asked for a song and the man who tunes the piano?Oishi led them in singing hometown in their style.Many photos were taken and then we were ushered out so they could practice.This was amazing.We were very tired after the morning walking and caught a taxi back to the hotel after saying goodbye to Atsushi Togashi their M C.As you can see we caught the cherry blossom in Shinjuku National garden.Finally I assured choir we'd be at their October concert.please keep me informed, cheers, Jeff and Ady.
